

Flea Control

There are so many products available now. The best approach is to discuss your needs and personal situation with your vet or vet nurse. They can advise the best product for you, your pup, your pocket and any other animals that you may already have at home. We highly recommend that you treat your puppy for fleas over both the summer and winter months, especially when Northland has such mild winters compared to the rest of the country.

